

Making Connections for Substance Use Recovery

Linking you to a supportive team and community resources to meet your recovery and life needs

Family Health Center of Marshfield, Inc.

Help for those struggling with substance use and other health needs

Family Health Center of Marshfield, Inc. (FHC) Alcohol & Drug Recovery Centers provide treatment and recovery support services for adults with substance use disorders. FHC is available to help you reach your recovery goals and overcome obstacles to leading a healthier life.

The Hub and Spoke Integrated Recovery Support Services benefit aims to connect you with services to help support your health and recovery. This service is available to all BadgerCare Plus or Medicaid members. If you are a BadgerCare Plus or Medicaid member or think you might be eligible, talk to us today.

How does it work?

FHC Alcohol & Drug Recovery Centers pair you with a support team that includes staff who understand substance use and recovery on a personal level. They will listen to you and help you on your journey to wellness and recovery.

You will work closely with care coordinators, who help you find behavioral and health care services to meet your unique needs. They will look for ways to strengthen your community, family, and social supports to help you reach your recovery goals.

What's included?

The benefit provides care coordination and other services, including:

- Helping you create your personal treatment plan.
- Assisting you in making connections and follow-up appointments to turn your plan into action.
- Supporting you to adopt healthy behaviors and manage your physical health, mental health, and substance use needs.
- Ensuring smooth transitions between treatment settings or service providers.
- Building or strengthening supportive friendships and family relationships to support your success.
- Referring you to services including medical, behavioral, educational, community, and social supports.

We help you make connections and give you options to support your recovery.

What if I don't have BadgerCare Plus or Medicaid?

If you don't have health insurance or have minimal health insurance, staff at FHC Alcohol & Drug Recovery Centers can help you find out if you're eligible for BadgerCare Plus or Medicaid.

If you are, you may receive the benefit services free of charge.
